Y4 Visit to @ Bristol

Mrs Hewitson' s report: On Wednesday, Class 4 had a great day visiting the @Bristol Science Museum. They spent some of the day in a Science lab, conducting experiments to learn about the water cycle, and had time to explore all of the fascinating hands-on exhibits in the museum. The highlight of the day was the visit to the Planetarium to watch a 3D show about our Solar System. Everyone looked great in their 3D glasses!

Escot Visit

Reception class have visited Escot today, their report will follow next week.

Y6 Photos

The photographer will be in school on Tuesday to photograph Year 6.

Interhouse Fencing

Mrs Churchill's report: All of year 3 had an introduction to fencing on Wednesday. They learned how to move and the technical vocabulary. All the children had a go and Langdon, Brewer and Joslin made it into the semi-finals. Henry and Oscar represented Langdon and Brewer in the final and the results were as follows: Stonham 4th, Joslin 3rd, Brewer 2nd and Langdon 1st!

County Cross Country

On Tuesday 25th 9 children represented South Somerset in the County Cross Country races. The course was longer than experienced by our runners and the standard was incredibly high, they all ran fantastic races and should be extremely proud of their effort. Lola S, Lola P, Flynn, Finlay, Toby, Sam G, Kendra, Poppy, Reuben. Well done!!

Finlay was the best year 5 boy in the Inter Area Cross Country 2017 – he is the County Champion! Well done to Finlay.
